PLEASURE SHOW RULES

++Please read the separate “General Show and Facilities Rules” as they apply to all three show series (Miniature, Pleasure and Gymkhana). The following rules are specific to the pleasure show series.

1. A horse and rider/handler may only enter one division per show; cross-entry is not allowed.

A) Well-schooled horses may be used in multiple divisions, such as leadline, walk/trot, and walk/trot/canter as long as the horse is not unduly fatigued.

B) An experienced rider may ride a green horse in walk/trot and a seasoned horse in walk/trot/canter.

C) Green horses may only enter one division regardless of changes in rider or mount (i.e., a green horse may not go in both walk/trot and green horse).

2. Green horses are allowed in walk/trot classes. However, green horses must be ridden by non-beginner riders and must be under control due to presence of beginner riders in the ring at the same time.

3. All riders, when mounted, MUST wear protective headgear that passes ASTM-SEI testing standards at ALL times on the showgrounds! Drivers and carriage passengers are required to wear helmets as well.

4. Martingales, tie-downs, draw-reins, etc. are not permitted in flat classes. Martingales are allowed in jumping classes only.
